

SAFE CRACKERS

Paid a Visit to the Town of Berea, This Morning.

Blew Open Two Safes With Nitroglycerine and Got Away With Cash and Property Valued at $1000-- There Is No Clue.

Berea, O., Oct. 26.—Safe crackers swooped down on Berea this morning, blew open two safes with nitroglycerine, got over $100 in cash, a large quantity of silverware, knives, revolvers and other articles and got away without having aroused a single person in the town.

The gang went first to Dunham's foundry, where they blew open the safe, but got no money. Here they stole hammers and chisels and then went to Lawrence and Brightman's hardware store. They blew open the safe, using a heavy charge. The safe door was blown completely off and hurled through the partition, 10 feet away. Every window in the building was shattered.

Show cases were broken, a number of stoves that were displaced near the safe were broken and the entire stock of goods was shaken from the shelves. Every compartment of the safe was broken into and papers were strewn about the place.

Brightman was treasurer of Baldwin university and had some university funds in the safe, but it is not known just how much. The loss, however, in cash, goods and damages to stock, will not fall below $1,000.

There is no clue to show how the gang entered town or got away.

Got $70,000 Worth of Negotiable Paper.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 26.—The latest report today from the safe blowing at Berea this morning says the robbers got $70,000 worth of negotiable papers from the safe in Lawrence & Brightman's store.

Quickest Wedding on Record.

MAYSVILLE, KY., Oct. 26.—The shortest marriage ceremony ever performed occurred at West Union, yesterday. William S. Auxier and Mary Goodwin, of Rectortown, this county, eloped. Frank Goodwin, the girl's father, telegraphed to stop the marriage and an officer with the telegram, and the couple, arrived at the 'Squire's' office at the same time. The 'Squire,' suspecting the contents of the telegram said: "You are married." The couple returned home and were met by the irate father and brother of the bride with winchesters. The girl was dragged from the buggy and was taken home. Auxier came here last night and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the two men for pointing fire arms.

MISS STONE, MISSIONARY.

Conflicting Stories About Her Condition, Treatment and Whereabouts--A Report From Sophia Today That Miss Stone Has Died.

VIENNA, Oct. 26.—The Oest Deutsche Bundschau today reports from Sofia that Miss Ellen Stone, the American missionary who was captured by brigands is dead, but there is no confirmation of the report here. There have been many conflicting reports as to the whereabouts, condition and treatment of Miss Stone since her abduction. This morning a report was published that Miss Stone's companion, Madam Tsilka, had died as a result of privations and the hardships endured. The report of Miss Stone's death which now comes from Sofia may simply be a variation of that report.

MISS ELLEN M. STONE.

The capture in the wilds of Macedonia of the American missionary, Miss Ellen M. Stone, and the subsequent demands for ransom made by her brigand captors have roused the whole Christian world. This picture is from a photograph which Miss Stone had taken during a visit to her home in Chelsea, Mass., several years ago.

CHILDREN

Called on Mayor Johnson Today— Asked to Have Parks Kept Open for the Winter.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 26.—The most unique delegation that ever called upon the Mayor was welcomed by Tom I. Johnson at the City Hall this morning. Three thousand school children marched to the hall and demanded that the city parks be kept open for winter sports, that the coasting hills and skating ponds be kept in order, that shelter houses be provided and attendants also to keep the houses warm and ice in order. Mayor Johnson made a great speech to the children and told them he would do all in his power to make the parks pleasant for them this winter and commended them for the public spirit and the courage manifested by the call. He was loudly cheered by the children who now look on him as a kind of modern Santa Clause.

BITTER

Injustice to Unfortunate Girl May Lead to General Investigation. In Asylum Fifteen Years.

New York, Oct. 26.—A story of bitter injustice and one that may lead to a general investigation of the insane asylums in the state, has just come to light. Mary Lake, a pretty young woman, after being confined in an asylum for 15 years, has been set at liberty. Her parents being dead and without friends, she was sent in 1886 to an asylum for the feeble-minded. No persons interested themselves in her and while perfectly sane she has been kept under restraint for 15 years at Newark, N. Y. Governor O'Dell will make a thorough investigation.

A Lion Escaped.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 26.—During the performance of Hagenbach's menagerie at the Elks' street fair at Mansfield last night a lion escaped from its cage causing a stampede in the audience of 1,000 people. Men, women and children ran over each other but no one was seriously injured. The trainer and attendants quickly threw a heavy cloth about the wandering animal's head and rushed him into a box and then back into the cage.

Both engines were badly damaged.

O'CONNELL

Asks for Assistance in Stopping Discrimination Against Union Labor in Two Places.

Washington, Oct. 26.—President O'Connell of the International Association of Machinists, called on the President this morning to ask his assistance in putting a stop to what he calls systematic discrimination against union labor in San Francisco and Rock Island, Ill. The former is at the Union Iron works where the battleships Wisconsin and Ohio were built, and the latter at the government arsenal. President Roosevelt said he would investigate the matter and promised that if he found any discrimination he would put a stop to it, if possible.

GUILTY

IS VERDICT IN CALEB POWERS CASE THIS AFTERNOON.

ARGUMENTS IN THE CASE BEING MADE TODAY.

OWENS SPOKE THIS MORNING.

Two Hours for the Closing Speech of Prosecuting Attorney Franklin. Case to Jury.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 26.—(Bulletin.)—This afternoon Powers was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 26.—A crowd that filled the court room and the lobbies listened to the arguments in the case of Caleb Powers charged with complicity in the murder of Senator Goebel. Last night and this morning, a crowd of equal proportions was in the room. Colonel Tom Campbell spoke for the prosecution last night and Col. Owens followed for the defense. Owens gave Campbell a severe dressing down, and accused him of subornation of perjury, and falsifying the evidence in his address to the jury. He then took up the testimony and made a strong argument for his client. Col. Owens still had 55 minutes of his time left, when he rose to address the jury this morning, and the prosecution had two hours for the closing speech of Prosecuting Attorney Franklin, following Owens, after which the case will go to the jury.

Why Dewey Resigned.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Admiral Dewey today said that his resignation as president of the Metropolitan club in no way was influenced by the talk the effect that he had been criticised for alleged favoritism toward Schley. The Admiral's friends say that since his marriage he has lost interest in clubs and that his resignation from the Metropolitan presidency was on this account alone.

Woman Found Guilty.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Lillian Huggins, a comely mulatto, was found guilty of manslaughter today. She killed Julius Stern, a peddler, by cutting his throat with a razor. Self-defense, was her plea. A dispute over a clock started the trouble. When the woman killed Stern she had her two months-old child in her arms.

Adams of that state as judge of the court of private land claims to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Thomas Fuller. SIX TIMES

BAKER HAS BEEN MARRIED IN LAST FIVE YEARS.

Flora, Ind., Oct. 26.—John Baker of this city, who recently married Miss Jeannie Balser, says that this is his sixth marriage within the past five years, and yet he declares that married life is not a failure in the sense that most people take it. All his former wives are living. They all reside in the immediate vicinity, and pass him every few days on the streets.

Baker says it shows ill-breeding to quarrel with a woman. "If you can't live in harmony with a woman," he declares, "get a divorce and marry another, and repeat the process until you do find one to suit you. That's my plan, and I believe now that I have a woman that will fill all requirements." Baker is 27 years of age.

KILLING

Of the Weak is Advocated by the Professor of Sociology at Cornell University.

New York, Oct. 26.—A special from Ithaca to the Journal says: Prof. H. H. Powers, Professor of Sociology at Cornell University, started his class in political principles Friday by the following statement:

"I am strongly in favor of killing off the weak in society for the benefit of the strong. I believe the time will come when society will see the benefit of exterminating the weak by artificial means. To be sure under the present regime it is impracticable, for who is to judge the weak and the fit from the strong and the unfit."

The occasion of these remarks was a lecture on natural selection. He said that nature formerly weeded out the unfit, but now life is made so much easier that a much larger percentage of those who are a burden to the better element of society are helped to live.

War used to kill off the weak in exterminating the strong and those most valuable to society.

MOTHER

Was Driven from the House and the Bride Left Also, Afterwards Committing Suicide.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 26.—Katherine Seibert Hadley, a bride of less than a year, committed suicide because her husband had forced her mother to seek another home. The mother had taken Hadley at his word and had just moved into a cottage several blocks away. While his mother-in-law had lived with him, Hadley claims, she made a lot of trouble between his wife and himself. Her departure seems to have caused more domestic complications than it averted. Mrs. Hadley mourned her absence constantly. Thursday she and her husband had quite a quarrel on the subject, but the husband stood pat. He could not, he said, and would not stand for the mother-in-law. Thereupon his wife picked up her hat and sought her mother's home.

When she reached it she took a bottle of carbolic acid and drained it. Instantly she fell to the floor, shrieking in agony. "Mother, I could not stand it away from you any longer."

The ambulance was summoned and everything possible was done to save Mrs. Hadley, but to no avail. She died within a few hours. Hadley admits that he drove his mother-in-law from the house, but says he had no choice.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Lieut. R. T. Hazzard, who helped Funston capture Aguinaldo, is to be recommended for a Congressional medal of honor. He recently burglarized the insurgent camp in the Philippines and stole therefrom an American deserter whom he brought back to the American army. As punishment for this, General Chaffee recommends a medal of honor and increased pay for the six scouts who helped Hazzard make the capture.

BIG ROW ON

Between the American Car Company and the American Tin Plate Co. Part of Steel Trust.

New York, Oct. 26.—A big row is on between the American Car Company and the American Tin Plate Company, part of the United States Steel Trust. The Car company wants the steel trust to buy it out, threatens if the trust does not, it will cease to buy in plate of the trust. As the car company controls 85 per cent of the can manufacturing plants and as it is in position to make tin plate itself, the matter has taken on a serious aspect for the trust.

STRIKING CONTRAST

In the Character of the Campaign Openings at Delaware and Bucyrus

If All the Voters of Ohio Could Have Seen the Size and Make Up of the Crowds at the Two Meetings, the Democratic Majority Would Be Overwhelming on Nov. 5.

Columbus, O., Oct. 26.—If every voter in Ohio could have had a clear view of the Republican opening at Delaware and the Democratic opening at Bucyrus the election of the Democratic state ticket and a Democratic legislature would be an assured fact a week from next Tuesday. The numbers in attendance at both openings were not material to a profitable comparison of the two events, but the character of the attendance showed conclusively what kind of a campaign this is and what interests are represented by the two parties. As a matter of fact the attendance at Bucyrus was much larger than at Delaware. The two cities are nearly identical in the composition and number of their population; their locations and the environments of their people are not dissimilar; their railroad facilities are about equal; the weather both days was ideal for a great out-door political demonstration, and other conditions were duplicated in the two events. It was natural, therefore, that, so far as the size of the crowds attending each was concerned, there should be little difference between the two.

The striking and vital difference was in the character of the throng that flocked to hear the orators of the two parties and in their behavior after they arrived. At Delaware the out-

It was noticed at Delaware that as soon as the great parade reached the speakers stand and disbanded, more than half of those who comprised it left the vicinity immediately. They had not come to hear arguments. Their

VENERABLE GROOM

Jacob Harris, 75, Weds a Lancaster Widow of 69 Summers—Bride Owns Property.

Columbus, O., Oct. 26.—That love never grows old was demonstrated when Jacob Harris, aged 75 years, was married at Lancaster to a widow of 69. Mr. Harris is on the pension list of the B. & O. railway company and has made his home for several years with Dr. Herman Harris, 152 Sycamore street.

The marriage was a surprise to Mr. Harris' relatives in this city. He became enamored of the widow some time ago and since has made many trips to Lancaster. He returned Tuesday from a visit of five days at the home of his sweetheart and called again at her home Thursday morning. His marriage was announced to Dr. Harris by telephone.

The name of the bride of many summers could not be learned, but it is said she is possessed of much of this world's goods. Among her possessions are two fine farms, on one of which a paying oil well has been drilled. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are enjoying their honeymoon at Circleville. They are expected to arrive in Columbus today.

FOOT CAUGHT

The Lad Displayed Nerve—Waited Till Train Cut It Off, But Saved His Life.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 26.—Cornelius Stewart, 13 year old boy living at No. 40 Manchester street, Friday afternoon showed himself to be endowed with more pluck and nerve than falls to the lot of the average man. About 4:30 o'clock, together with a companion, he started on an errand to a nearby grocery.

As he crossed the C. and O. railroad tracks his right foot caught between the rails and a board running next to the rail. He tried to get it out, but his efforts only made it the tighter. His companion observed a train coming down the track in which little Stewart was caught. He cried to his companion, who seeing that he could not get his foot loose, began to unlatch his shoe and thus free himself. In the meantime his companion endeavored to attract the attention of somebody on the train, which he thought was backing down, but it was really a detached train making a switch. It was upon the boy before any one saw him and before he could finish untying his shoe.

With a nerve surprising in one so young he gave up his endeavor to free his foot, and, leaning back the best he could, waited for the wheels of the first car to cut off his foot and free him. As the wheel passed over his foot he pulled the stump out and dragged himself away from the track. Friends took him up tenderly and carried him to St. Joseph's Hospital.

HOW TO ECONOMIZE.

SOME men economize so closely on the number of words in a telegram that the receiver cannot understand it. This is not sensible economy. Neither is it sensible economy to ruin garments of value with cheap soap or powerful chemicals that eat into the fabric. True economy uses Ivory Soap in the laundry. It is the most of pure soap that can be sold for the money. Chemically it is as innocent as water. Yet it does everything you can ask of a soap. Try it!

Tribune's New Press.

The American-Tribune has recently installed a fine Duplex Web Perfecting Cox press, similar to the new newspaper press purchased by the Advocate last summer. By this stroke of commendable enterprise, our esteemed contemporary has been enabled to enlarge its paper and to publish the edition at the rate of 6,000 papers cut and folded per hour.

While the Advocate modestly refers to the fact that this paper has led in the purchase of the Linotype machines, in the introduction of a complete telegraph service and in the installation of a Cox perfecting press, and has all along and will continue to lead in the publication of the day's news, yet it desires to print a word of praise for the successful effort Mr. Dickinson is putting forth in the publication of the American-Tribune. That paper has vastly improved under Mr. Dickinson's management and much credit is due not only to Mr. Dickinson but to his editor, Mr. Charles L. H. Long, and to his business manager, Mr. A. C. Hatch.

Newark's papers are today the best newspapers printed in any city in Ohio outside of Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and Toledo. In fact they print later telegraph news than appears in any evening paper that is circulated in Newark. It is a pleasure to refer to the American-Tribune's enterprise and it should be a matter of pride with Newark people generally that its newspapers are both up to date and fully abreast of the times.

The following letter from Mr. Anner Jones, who was the official architect and civil engineer for all improvements in Central Park, is a sample of the thousands we receive daily, wholly unsolicited:

Surgeon's Knife

Failed.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy Cured.

Dear Doctor: Some years ago I suffered serious disturbances to my health, with loss of sleep and appetite; severe pains in the back, over kidneys and liver; bowels were constipated; there was a severe pressure on my bladder. My physician told me my case was a serious attack of GRAVEL AND STONES IN THE BLADDER.

I finally became so bad that an operation was performed on me. I was better for some time after this, but in a few months the old trouble set up again. My age was against me, too, as I was 63 years old, and became very much discouraged.

At this time I was losing a great deal of blood from the kidneys, when I began using Dr. David Kennedy's Famous Remedy. I took it for a few days, passed three calculi, or stones, the size of very large peas.

After this I had no more trouble; the medicine gave a healthy tone to my constitution and was THE SOLE MEANS OF MY CURE.

I cheerfully recommend its use, and no amount of money can measure the confidence I have in DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY as a health restorer and preservative. There can be no other medicine so valuable for liver, kidney and bladder diseases.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have no much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. Isthmian Canal.

London, Oct. 26.—The Spectator, dealing with the question of the isthmian canal, says: "When once the canal is made by the United States, opened to the whole world on equal terms, and held so strongly that no power at war with Great Britain will be able to violate its neutrality, the British nation will realize that, instead of the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty proving an injury, it is a great benefit to the nation. That America, though she will make, work and hold the canal, should bind herself to preserve its neutrality as regards a power with which she might be at war, is absurd."

Helen May Become a Duchess.

Paris, Oct. 26.—Count Boson de Perigord, who recently married Miss Helen Morton daughter of Levi P. Morton, former vice president of the United States, purchased the chateau of Valençay for 2,718,365 francs. The owner of the domain of Valençay, if a member of the family, is entitled to the dukedom. The Gaulois expresses the belief that Count Boson de Perigord will claim his rights; and the former Miss Morton will thus become Duchess of Valençay.

LICKING COUNTY GAS READY TO

Company Getting in Line for the Season—Officers Elected by Branch 52—Notes.

Today's Pittsburg Commoner and glassworker contains the following letter from its correspondent at the Everett glass factory at this place:

We are not starting up here as we did last season, but we are getting in line, and in a few weeks will have all of our factories in full blast, except the new one built last year, which was partly destroyed about the last of June by a cyclone. Two factories started on September 10 and two others started Oct. 17, making four in all. The boys are all pleased to be at work again and the prospects look very good for a successful season for this year. We do not expect to lose any time on account of shortage of gas. Mr. Everett has his own gas field at Homer, and he has the pipes all laid and ready to turn on any time, so we expect lots of gas.

Several of the boys have very sore hands. Brothers Box and Boone have lost several days on account of gathered hands, and Brother Dayton was off all week sick. Brother James DeJier was called home to Salem, N. J., on account of the death of his cousin, Wm. Devier, who died at Terre Haute. Wm. Howarth, one of our apprentices, had a surgical operation performed on him at the hospital at Columbus. Today word came that he will be soon all right again.

At Branch 52's meeting the following officers were elected: President, Thomas Quincy; vice president, Peter Ewald; corresponding secretary, Ed. Gilbert; financial secretary, Fred Schmel; treasurer, Frank McNeely.

A FIENDISH ATTACK.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at Hall's Drug Store. 10

BARGAINS IN UMBRELLAS.

We had over 100 fine umbrella covers which ranged in price from $1.00 to $2.00. These covers we returned to the factory and had them fitted up with steel rods and the latest style handles. We will now close them out at 90c. to $1.90. Haynes Bros. Jewelers. d-w-s

PHILATELISTS' CLUB.

A philatelist club will be organized next Tuesday evening, Oct. 29, at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building. Stamp fiends and all members of the Association engaged in collecting stamps and old coins are invited to join the club.

Coroner's Verdicts.

Coroner Scott J. Evans returned a verdict this noon in the cases of death of Wm. J. Orr and his wife. He finds that both came to their deaths by gunshot wounds inflicted by a 32-calibre, American Boy revolver, in the hands of said Wm. J. Orr. That Mrs. Orr's death wound was in the left breast, penetrating the heart, and that his wound was on the right side of the head, penetrating the brain.

The verdict on the death of Lee Patterson who was killed at the Buckeye Lake road's gravel pit, will be rendered according to the facts, about Monday or Tuesday, five witnesses having been examined Friday night.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN

Requires Treatment Which Acts in Harmony With the Female System.

Letter from Mrs. Wright, President of Brooklyn, N.Y., Round Table, Proves this Claim.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organism, and which while it causes disturbances similar to ordinary indigestion cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar utero-tonic effects as well. In other words, a derangement of the female organs may have such a disturbing effect upon a woman's whole system as to cause serious indigestion and dyspepsia, and it cannot be relieved without curing the original cause of the trouble, which seems to find its source in the pelvic organs.

As proof of this theory we beg to call attention to the letter from Mrs. Wright, of Brooklyn, N. Y., herewith published:

MRS. MAGGIE WRIGHT.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For two years I suffered more or less with dyspepsia which so degenerated my entire system that I was unfit to properly attend to my daily duties. I felt weak and nervous and nothing I ate tasted good and felt like a stone in my stomach. I tried several dyspepsia cures, but nothing seemed to help me permanently. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and was happily surprised to find that it acted like a fine tonic, and in a few days I began to enjoy and properly digest my food. My recovery was rapid, and in five weeks I was a different woman. Seven bottles completely cured me, and a dozen or more of my friends have used it since."

—Mrs. MAGGIE WRIGHT, 12 Van Voorhis St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

How a Serious Tumor Case Was Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Some time ago I wrote you that my regular physician had made an examination and told me I was afflicted with a tumor in my womb. I had backache, headache, bearing down pains and very profuse menstruation. My limbs would ache so I could not sleep and I was very weak and nervous. I was bloated from my head to my feet. After receiving your letter I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and followed all the rest of your advice as near as I could, and the tumor was expelled in pieces, and I regained my natural size. I continued taking your Vegetable Compound for a while longer and felt like a new woman. I cannot thank you enough for your kind advice and what your medicine did for me. It certainly saved my life."

—Mrs. PERLEY S. WILLIS, Vershire, Vt. (March 11, 1901)

It would seem by these statements that women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice as soon as any incipient illness appears. Her advice is free, and has put thousands of women on the right road to recovery.

$5000 REWARD:—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

THE W. C. T. U.

On last Tuesday the devotionals were led by Mrs. Cool, who read the sixth chapter of Matthew. Gen. thought, Lay not up for yourself treasures upon earth, for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

The whole of the chapter being Christ's words it was given much thought. The leaders referred to the 31st verse which is Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall we drink, or wherewithal shall we be clothed, saying that it was right to work and make preparation for the future, but not worry.

Several beautiful selections were sung. Miss Mary Harris presided at the organ.

At the close of the devotionals the vice president, Mrs. B. F. Patt, called the meeting to order and attended to the business. It was moved and carried that a box of fruit and jelly be sent to the Temperance hospital at Chicago. For a number of years the different unions have been contributing to this hospital which is in charge of some of the best medical advisers, who claim they meet with better success in not prescribing intoxicating liquors.

Responsive reading on Sunday School Temperance Work was read by President and members. On last Wednesday a railroad meeting was held at the B. & O. shops. Jennie Smith, National Superintendent of that department was present.

Prison meetings are held every Sunday at 2:30 and good work is accomplished. It is hoped that the Christian people will come out and assist the faithful Superintendent.

Mrs. Sisson and Mrs. Metz are attending the State Convention at Toledo. A report of this convention will be given at the meeting on next Tuesday. It is hoped that every member and friend of the cause will be present.

A parlor social will be held at the home of Mrs. D. M. Kelm in the near future for the benefit of the Temperance Temple at Chicago.

Echoes from the noon tide meetings held each day in Willard Hall should be sufficient to enthrall and stimulate every white ribboner to put forth every effort to retire the trust bonds and make it a living monument to Frances Willard.

But the gem of this whole building, is the Willard Hall so fair; Named for her who is our leader.

She was injured about the neck and spine and died shortly after being removed to the hospital. Several others were slightly injured.

Plot Against the Shah. London, Oct. 26.—The Daily Mail publishes a dispatch from Tehran regarding the plot against the Shah of Persia, representing it to have been somewhat less serious than advices to the same paper from St. Petersburg indicated. The Tehran dispatch asserts that the brothers of the Shah were not concerned in the conspiracy, but that many others have been fined or banished.

SCHLEY ON THE FRAY.

Graphically Recites the Big Battle of Santiago Bay Story—Brooklyn "It" From Start to Finish—Terse Review of Testimony in Court.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The chief event of the day in the court of inquiry was Admiral Schley's relation of the events of July 3, when the American fleet sent Cervera's squadron to the bottom of the sea or the beach. He told his story of this historical occurrence in plain words and in unaffected style, but the narrative was straightforward and to the point, indicating close familiarity with all the phases of that event. He said the Brooklyn had for a time sustained the fire of all four of the Spanish ships, and also the fire of the Spanish land batteries. Explaining the historical turn of the Brooklyn, his own flagship, he said that she had not approached to within less than 600 yards of the Texas, and that he never had considered that vessel in the least danger. He also stated, in response to an interrogation from Mr. Rayner, that he had never, during the battle, engaged in any colloquy with Lieutenant Hodgson, and that he had not used the expression attributed to him by Hodgson. This refers to the alleged colloquy in which the admiral is charged with having said, "Damn the Texas." Admiral Schley also gave the details of the reconnaissance of May 31, when the Spanish ship Cristobal Colon was sighted. In this connection he denied the statements attributed to him by Commander Potts of the battleship Massachusetts.

Reviewing the famous battle, Admiral Schley said in part:

The first gun, I think, was fired by Lieutenant Sampson, almost directly over the foremast of the ship. I saw the leading ship, which apparently had started with the intention of ramming the Texas, turn ahead to the westward, leaving a gap between her and the ship following, which subsequently proved to be the Viscaya. We were advancing in the direction of the Viscaya, when she also seemed to have given up the intention to ram and turned to the westward following the direction of the leading ship. It then became apparent, as we were steering on diametrically opposite courses, that the original plan had failed and that the Spanish fleet, in order and apparently to distract attention, was passing the battleship line. A new feature of the fight became immediately apparent. Captain Cook gave the order to port, beam, I did not. I should have done it in a second. I never saw the ship turn more rapidly than she did at this time. Her turn was absolutely continuous. There was no easing of her helm. I never saw her starboard side of the Texas at all. We were never across her bow. I never saw her port side and she never approached any position that was within 600 yards of the Brooklyn. She never entered into my head at all as a menace of danger.

Before we turned the leading ship was ahead, or a little, astern the beam and when we turned to starboard she was astern of us, and all four ships and the fort were firing at the same time, and from that moment the following 10 or 15 minutes were the most intense parts of this combat. I remember very distinctly seeing from the Texas as our attention was attracted for a moment, the jets of water ahead and astern and over and short. The roar of projectiles was one of the things that can be heard only once in a lifetime, and then never forgotten. It appeared at that moment that all four of these ships were at work upon the Brooklyn, and up to the moment of turning, so far as we could perceive, there was not the slightest evidence that they had ever been injured. The thought passed through my mind that after all our preparation and waiting those fellows would get away. At that moment I felt, and I thought I remarked to Captain Cook, that we were alone and would get away.

WITNESSES

Alleged to Have Been Tamed with In a Bribery Case up in Michigan.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 26.—A great sensation was caused in the trial of City Attorney Laus K. Salisbury, charged with bribery in connection with the water supply scandals here, in the superior court, when Prosecutor Ward announced in court that an attempt had been made to bribe one of the people's witnesses. Promoter E. H. Garman, William Leonard, a former city employee, was arrested charged with offering $1,250 to Garman to influence his testimony, which Garman accepted under the prosecutor's instructions. Leonard is in jail.

Admiral Dewey Resigns. Washington, Oct. 26.—Admiral George Dewey has resigned the office of president of the Metropolitan club, the most exclusive social organization of the national capital. His resignation is said to have been for purely personal reasons, and was tendered a week ago. As president the admiral was required to attend the weekly meeting of the board of directors on Saturday afternoon, which, owing to his residence in the country, was often a matter of considerable personal inconvenience.

Deed of Drunken Troopers. Phoenix, A. T., Oct. 26.—Cavalry troopers stationed near Holbrook, in a drunken riot in that town, ended with an attack upon the house of John Blevins, deputy sheriff. Blevins was fatally and Eke Perkins painfully wounded. The soldiers also shot at the wife and children of Blevins. Three of them have been placed under arrest. The people of Holbrook attribute the tragedy to the abolition of the canteen.

Advocate Want Ads bring results.

Lays have most of that left upon ourselves, because I did not know then the battleships could possibly keep up their speed. But I said to him, we must stay with the crowd. I had no idea that they would escape. Of course, if they could have shot as well as our people did, they certainly would have got us.

When we had completely turned around on a westerly course the ships appeared to have been broken up a little, although still in some semblance of formation, and just at that moment I saw the Oregon breaking in through the cloud. She broke through on to the starboard quarter of the flagship. I had hoisted the signal of "close up" and then "follow the flag," feeling that a new disposition was necessary. That signal was replied to and I saw it repeated.

Testimony Contradicted.

Then the admiral recounted the chase and destruction of the fleeing Spanish ships, dwelling particularly on the part played in the fray by the Brooklyn and the Oregon. During the chase he got occasional glimpses through the smoke of the Indiana and Gloucester, and felt that both were doing admirable work. When the last of the Spanish vessels, the Colon, had been beached, the cruiser New York came up, Schley having made signals to her that it was a glorious day for the country. He then boarded the flagship and paid his respects. The admiral concluded by referring to the solitude of the American officers and men for the captured and injured Spaniards.

Admiral Schley thus far in his testimony has contradicted a number of the naval officers. He directly contradicted every officer, including the Brooklyn witnesses, who testified regarding the Cienfuegos blockade, by innuendo he accused Rear Admiral Evans and Lieutenant Commander Raymond P. Rogers, and he virtually accused the navy department of not giving him proper information. He blamed Sampson for not sending him news of McCalla's arrangements with the insurgents at Cienfuegos. He very positively denied Rear Admiral Cotton's statement that Cotton delivered him a dispatch on May 27; he denied point blank Captain Sigbee's testimony that Sigbee did not tell him the Spaniards were not at Cienfuegos, he contradicted Captain McCalla about what McCalla told him regarding sailing places, and said further that McCalla did not tell the whole truth; he not only contradicted Lieutenant Hood of the Hawk, but he directly accused that officer of at least indiscretion, and he denied what Lieutenant Wood of the Dupont said about a conversation between himself and that officer.

The question of calling Admiral Sampson to the stand was revived by Judge Advocate Lemly, who reminded Mr. Rayner that he (Mr. Rayner) had suggested some time ago that he desired the admiral called. Captain Lemly said he was prepared to issue the summons if called upon to do so, but Mr. Rayner responded that the incident which had seemed to demand the admiral's attendance had dwindled into comparative insignificance, and he added that it was well understood the condition of Admiral Sampson was such that he could not be expected to appear upon the witness stand.

BEYOND DOUBT.

These Facts Must Convince Every Newark Reader.

That which follows is the experience of a resident of Newark. Incredulity cannot exist about the statement because it can easily be investigated.

Mrs. Geo. Graff of No. 25 Spencer St., says, "I had a terrible bad back which successfully resisted all efforts in the way of medicines and porous plasters to relieve it. It was just across the loins where the greatest strains fall, so that I could not get up when I was down. I awakened in the morning, I moved about at my household work scarcely able to shift my body. As I was often in actual torture. For three months I suffered all the time, until one day a neighbor gave me a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills. I took them and the benefit was so apparent I sent to Crayton's drug store and procured a box. Before very long I discarded the plasters, the kidney secretions looked clear and natural and I had not a pain in my head or back."

SEARCHING FOR THE DEAD

Among the Ruins of the Burned Philadelphia Plant—Nineteen Known to Have Perished—Further Details of Friday's Frightful Philadelphia Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—At 9:30 o'clock this morning twenty persons were known to have met death in the fire yesterday at the Hunt, Wilkinson & Company establishment and surrounding buildings on Market st. Twenty-two victims are in the hospital today, and several deaths may result among the injured. Sixteen other persons are still unaccounted for. The search for the bodies among the debris is still going on. The loss it is said, today, will be over $600,000.

Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—Police and firemen are delving into the ruins of the burned buildings in Market street in search of bodies supposed to have been buried beneath the debris. As a result of the fire 19 persons are known to have perished and over a score of others are in hospitals, more or less injured. The buildings destroyed were the 8-story structure, 1219 and 1221 Market street, occupied by Hunt, Wilkinson & Company, upholsterers and furniture dealers, and three 3-story buildings occupied by small merchants. The big furniture building extended back a half block to Commerce street, and was owned by Henry C. Lea.

Never in its history has Philadelphia experienced a fire which spread with such great rapidity. All occurred within an hour. The origin of the death-dealing conflagration is unknown. It is said that an explosion of naphtha or gasoline in the basement was the cause, but this is denied by Mr. Wilkinson, who says there was never a sufficient quantity of either explosive about the building to be responsible for the terrible disaster. Rumor has it, also, that an elevator constructor at work in the basement permitted the flame of his lantern to communicate with some of the gaseous liquids stored in the basement, and that this was the cause of the conflagration.

Such a disastrous fire, attended with so great a loss of life in such a brief period, was never before known in this city. Men and women died a lingering, agonizing death in the presence of thousands of spectators, who were unable to lift a hand to their assistance. The rear of Hunt, Wilkinson & Company's building faces on Commerce street, a small thoroughfare.

On the fire escapes at the end of the building two men and one woman were slowly roasted to death, while the horror-stricken throng on the street below turned sick at the sight. In the front, on Market street, a woman, driven to desperation, leaped from a window on the top floor and was crushed to death on the pavement. These are but a few of the heartrending scenes attending the conflagration. Firemen claim to have seen men and women, unable to reach the windows or fire escapes, burned to death in the interior of the building. If this be so, little or nothing remains of the victims, and it is doubtful if any portion of their bodies will be recovered. Seventy-nine of the 100 persons in Hunt, Wilkinson & Company's building when the fire started were employees, and the remainder were customers and outside workmen who were engaged in putting the finishing touches on the new eighth floor.

The list of known dead is as follows: Dorothy Kramer, Martha Baker, Margaret Hebdon, Susan Gormley, Harry House, H. A. Sparrow, Charles E. Sparrow, Fred Wittington, Charles Landis, Walter Stearley, J. E. Armstrong, Mrs. Martha Banks (colored), Mrs. Mary Mitchell (colored), Margaret Grady, one unknown white woman, three unknown white men.

The financial loss is estimated at $500,000, most of which falls on Hunt, Wilkinson & Company, whose loss is estimated at $250,000. Henry C. Lea's loss on the building is about $150,000. William F. Potts & Son suffered a loss of $60,000, while other occupants of the Potts building and surrounding property owners suffered losses aggregating $25,000.

ENDED IN RIOT

Rival Foot Ball Teams Pummel Each Other to the Queen's Taste at McKinney, Tex.

McKinney, Tex., Oct. 26.—Fourteen men painfully bruised and five seriously beaten is the score of a football game in McKinney. The McKinney Y. M. C. A. team and the Sherman Tex., city team, were on the gridiron, and in the first rush the Sherman team handled the McKinney boys roughly. Two of the men got into a dispute that developed into a fight. Others joined in the affair and the fight became general. Twenty-two men were soon involved in a fist fight. Bystanders from both cities joined in the affair with clubs, and several men were frightfully beaten. Police and deputies rushed in, and after some time succeeded in quelling the riot.

Wedding Guests Poisoned.
Bath, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Physicians of this place were telephoned to hurry as fast as possible to Cass Corners, Campbell Creek, Buck settlement and South Howard, all of which places are hamlets within a short distance of Bath. The aid of physicians was needed by about 90 people who were suffering from symptoms of poisoning. There were 100 guests at the wedding of Clarence Carr and Miss Nellie Thomas, at the home of James M. Thomas, of Cass Corners. After the party was over most of the guests, including the officiating clergyman, the Rev. George S. Cheerer, were prostrated. It is claimed that the cases are not necessarily fatal.

Favors American Firms.
London, Oct. 26.—The question of the alleged unfairness to British manufacturers in giving contracts to American firms for locomotives for India and South Africa is being hotly discussed in the press. British manufacturers complain that the Americans are given opportunities to revise tenders which are withheld from British firms, and while the latter are pinned to specifications, the Americans are permitted to supply standard engines. It is more than hinted that Charles Bletterman Elliott, general manager of the Cape government railways, had power to give orders, and has favored American firms.

Pan-American Congress.
City of Mexico, Oct. 26.—The discussions of the pan-American congress are assuming a character which displeases those who are hoping for the success of the gathering. At the day's session chapter first of the proposed regulations relative to the powers of secretary general was approved. When chapter second was reached it was practically set aside and a committee was appointed which will have powers to appoint other committees to fix the points which the conference is to discuss. This may mean that all Chile's efforts to secure the restriction of arbitration to future questions may prove fruitless.

Miss Stone Still Missing.
Sofia, Oct. 26.—It is semi-officially asserted that no indication has been found of Miss Stone's kidnappers in Bulgaria. The Bulgarian government is determined to annihilate the band, should it cross the frontier, and will deal with the utmost severity with any Bulgarians whose complicity in the kidnapping shall be proved. Great excitement is felt here at the exploitation to the discredit of Bulgaria of a crime committed in another state.

Copper Mines Closed.
Butte, Mon., Oct. 26.—The announced policy of the Amalgamated Copper company to curtail production in order to keep the price of copper up to 17 cents is now in force. Both the Anaconda and the Boston & Montana mines and smelters have been closed, but it is said the suspension will be only temporary.

Girls Need Not Hop.
Washington, Oct. 26.—The civil service commission notified the postmaster general that it had modified its regulations in accordance with his request to waive certain physical requirements of female applicants for positions as postoffice clerks, including that making them hop on one foot for a distance of 12 feet.

IN THE LODGE ROOM.

MODERN WOODMEN.
C. S. Kerr, clerk of Cedar Camp, No. 27, Modern Woodmen of America, of this city, paid to the beneficiaries of George W. Henry, deceased, $1000, its full claim against the society he represents. The payment of this claim was delayed 30 days on account of an anonymous letter written to the head office of the society by some unscrupulous person desiring to delay payment of the claim. The society, after sending a representative to investigate the claim, decided it to be just, and immediately paid the claim. The Modern Woodmen have paid to beneficiaries of deceased members of Cedar Camp, $8000 in the past four years, and all claims have been paid promptly and in full. The local camp now has a total membership in good standing of 560 members in this city, being the largest of its kind in the city. Principal Childs Speaks on Sunday.
The Entertainment Course.—The Boys' Meeting.—Notes.

The Sunday afternoon Y. M. C. A. men's meeting has been fortunate in getting good speakers. The very large attendance at these meetings will testify to the value of the addresses listened to.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Prof. E. P. Childs, principal of the High School, will deliver the address on the subject "Loyalty." It is hoped that a very large audience of men will welcome the speaker at the opening of the meeting.

The patrons of this meeting will be favored by music rendered by a large mixed chorus. This chorus will be in charge of Miss Jennie Blinn, instructor of vocal music in Sheppardson Conservatory of Music at Granville.

Everything possible will be done to make this meeting a success both in the way of attendance and profit to those attending. The song service led by this mixed chorus will open promptly at 3:30 o'clock.

The boys' meeting held at 2:00 o'clock was well attended last Sunday, but there is room for quite a large number of boys at this meeting. Matters of great interest to the boys will be presented next Sunday, and all should be present.

Rev. J. C. Schindel, pastor of the English Lutheran church, will address the boys and as he has a very interesting talk prepared in addition to a little surprise which has been arranged for the boys, he should be greeted with a large crowd at tomorrow's meeting.

The Sunday morning Bible Class is a success and the members mean that it shall continue so. The class is devotional in character given to the study of main Christian duties. Any young man will be made welcome at this gathering. Hour of study 9:00 to 9:50 a. m. every Sunday.

Seats are now on sale for the Association Course of Entertainments. The course for 1901-02 is the best presented thus far by the Y. M. C. A., and the following is a list of attractions:

Dec. 9—"Marco," the Magician, Musician and Artist.
Dec. 20—Old Homestead Quartette.
Jan. 27—Elvie Burnett Concert Co.
Feb. 18—Elias Day, Characterist.
March 28—Hon. Henry Watterson.
Tickets granting general admission to all entertainments in the course will be sold for One ($1.00) Dollar. Reserved seats will cost 15 cents extra for each entertainment, and will be on sale ten days before date of entertainment.

A member of the Association will be given One Course Ticket Free on presentation of his membership ticket at the Association office, on or after December 1st, 1901.

Reserved tickets will cost the membership the same price charged the public, i. e. fifteen cents.

Additional seats—Members may purchase additional tickets at the regular rate of One ($1.00) Dollar each.

The regular course tickets will be on sale at the Association office, or by the members of the entertainment committee Sept. 15th. Patrons of the Course are urged to call at the office and secure their tickets early, as a determined effort will be made to dispose of the limited number of tickets that will be on sale.

ZANESVILLE FIRE.

Entailing a Loss of $80,000.—A Spectator Fatally Injured.

Zanesville, O., Oct. 26.—The most destructive fire in this city in ten years completely wiped out the big plant of the Zanesville Art Pottery company last evening. One hundred and fifty people are thrown out of work and the loss is $80,000, with $40,000 insurance. The fire started at 6 o'clock, only a few minutes after the workmen had left. While it was at its height, the south wall fell, burying three bystanders under the debris. One of them, Charles Conn, is at the hospital, fatally injured, but the other two escaped with bad bruises and contusions. The plant had only been in operation a year.

The Coshocton ordinance prohibiting women from entering and frequenting saloons has been upheld by Judge Maxwell in the Common Pleas court, but exceptions have been taken to the decision and the case is to be carried to the Circuit court. The Newark women left forfeits for their appearance and later the other women were released.

TWO FALSE REPORTS.

The report that Charles Barcus, one of the patients at the small pox hospital had died, which gained general circulation on the streets today, is not true. The patients are all doing finely and all other reports to the contrary, are false.

Dr. R. W. DeCrow told the Advocate over the telephone at 2:30, that there were no new cases and those already at the hospital were rapidly recovering.

The report that Homer Barcus, an attendant, had been stricken with the disease is also false. His arm, which was vaccinated became very sore, but he is otherwise in the best of health.
